A professional golfer playing Tour Edge finished 2nd this week on the PGA Tour Champions, giving Tour Edge their 27th 1st or 2nd place finish in the last 46 Champions events.

That means that Tour Edge has either won or finished runner-up in almost 60% of the PGA Tour Champions events over the past 20 months.

In the last two weeks alone, Tour Edge has been in play for 10 Top 25 finishes and has experienced a wide array of their products in play, including drivers, fairway woods, hybrids, iron-woods and putters.

The Tour Edge Exotics CBX Iron-Wood ranked as the No. 1 utility club model in play this week at Minnehaha Country Club in Sioux Falls, South Dakota with eight clubs in play, besting the next closest utility model by three clubs.

A multiple Major Champion on the PGA Tour Champions put a Tour Edge PureFeel Template Biarritz putter into play this week for the first time and finished 7th for his 6th Top 10 finish of the season. The player is 25th in Putts Per Round ranking this season.

Seven players finished in the Top 25 playing Tour Edge this week, including three Tour Edge staff players (Scott McCarron, Duffy Waldorf and Tom Lehman.)

“To have drivers, fairways, hybrids, putters and to lead the count in utility clubs with our iron-wood this week is the epitome of what we are doing setting up every week on the range of the PGA Tour Champions,” said Tour Edge President and Master Club Designer David Glod. “We are servicing these legends of the game on a weekly basis like nobody else and in turn, we are seeing every type of club in play.”

McCarron finished 7th in Sioux Falls for his 13th Top 10 finish of the season. Add that in with his three victories and three runner-up finishes this season and McCarron is ranked No. 1 on the Charles Schwab money list with a $492,083 cushion over the 2nd ranked player.

Tour Edge surpassed 600 clubs in play this week on the three PGA Tours over the last 20 months. In that time, they have earned 56 Top 5's, 98 Top 10's and 185 Top 25's in the bags of over 80 different professionals.
