

Tour Edge in Play for 19th Top 5 Finish of 2019 on PGA Tour Champions with No. 1 Ranked Scott McCarron

Tour Edge Ranked No. 1 Utility Club in Play at DICK'S Sporting Goods Open

Players using Tour Edge golf clubs on the PGA Tour Champions earned six Top 25 finishes Sunday at the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open in Endicott, NY. All four Tour Edge Exotics staff players finished in the Top 25 at the event.

Tour Edge Exotics staff player Scott McCarron finished in 4th place, adding to his lead as the No. 1 ranked player in the 2019 Charles Schwab Cup standings.

McCarron shot rounds of 69-66-69 to finish in the Top 5 for the 9th time this season, including the three victories he's earned this year. His Top 5 finish represented the 19th Top 5 finish for a player using Tour Edge clubs this season on the PGA Tour Champions.

McCarron, who wears a Tour Edge Exotics logo on his sleeve, is the current No. 1 ranked player in the PGA Tour Champions with $2,102,505 earned in tournament winnings this year. He leads the No. 2 ranked player by a whopping $568,178.

Tour Edge staff player Duffy Waldorf finished 9th this week at En-Joie Golf Club for his 11th Top 25 finish of the season out of 16 events played. He ranks 23rd in the Charles Schwab Cup money standings.

Tour Edge staffers Tom Lehman and Tim Petrovic both finished in the Top 25 in New York. Lehman now ranks 14th and Petrovic ranks 21st in the standings with seven events remaining before the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

The 2019 Senior Players major champion finished 13th with his CBX 119 hybrid for his 11th Top 25 in 13 events since putting Exotics in the bag. This includes the Senior Players victory and four total Top 5 finishes during that run.

Two new players to Tour Edge played five total Exotics CBX Iron-Woods as their long irons at the event. These former PGA TOUR winners joined Lehman and Petrovic playing their trusty CBX Iron-Woods to total eight CBX Iron-Woods in play at the event.

This made Tour Edge the No. 1 ranking brand for utility clubs in play and the CBX Iron-Wood the No. 1 model of utility clubs in play at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, beating the No. 2 ranking model by doubling their count.

Tour Edge represented 28% of all utility clubs in play at the event, according to the Darrell Survey. Fifty-seven different CBX Iron-Woods have been put into play so far this season, making the CBX club one of the hottest utility clubs on the professional tours.

After 18 events on the 2019 PGA Tour Champions season, Exotics clubs have been in play for five victories, 30 Top 10 finishes and 67 Top 25 finishes.

About Tour Edge

In 1986, David Glod founded Tour Edge with a focus on offering golfers with high quality and technologically advanced golf products that were as cutting edge as they were affordable. He is now considered one of the preeminent master club designers in golf club design and has led Tour Edge to be a Top 10 manufacturer in every club category.

Tour Edge products have been put in play on the PGA TOUR, PGA Tour Champions, LPGA Tour and Web.com Tour, as well as European professional tours, and have been in play in every PGA TOUR major championship and in Ryder Cup competitions.

This has led Tour Edge equipment to 22 wins on the PGA Tours (10 PGA TOUR, 11 PGA Tour Champions and one Web.com Tour victories.)

Since 2018, Tour Edge clubs earned 12 wins, 12 runner-up finishes, over 50 Top 5 finishes and over 90 Top 10 finishes on the PGA Tours.

Tour Edge, an American owned and operated company for more than 33 years, manufactures and sells golf clubs under three distinct brand names: Exotics, Hot Launch and Bazooka.

- Exotics products bring futuristic technologies to the marketplace with tour preferred designs and smaller production runs. Exotics clubs utilize higher-grade, avant-garde materials and manufacturing methods that have established Exotics as a leader in quality craftsmanship and to redefine what is possible in golf club performance.
- Hot Launch has forged a name for itself as a producer of high-quality premium game improvement golf clubs from driver to wedge. Hot Launch has proven to provide the greatest custom fit value in golf and includes an unprecedented guaranteed 48-hour custom fit delivery program.
- Bazooka represents Tour Edge's Get In The Game products and the absolute best value available in golf, offering advancing players, beginners, women and juniors the best in playability and affordability.

All Exotics and Hot Launch clubs are hand built in the United States in Batavia, Illinois and then distributed throughout the world.

Every Tour Edge club comes with a Lifetime Warranty and a 30-day play guarantee.
