

Duffy Waldorf Signs with Tour Edge Exotics to Hat/Shirt/Bag Logo and Club Staff Deal for 2019

Tour Edge announced today that Duffy Waldorf has officially signed a deal to endorse Tour Edge Exotics and to play their metalwoods on the PGA Tour Champions in 2019. Waldorf will feature Tour Edge Exotics logos on his headwear and shirts and will carry an Exotics CBX 119 staff bag.

"I was going to continue to play the Exotics hybrid no matter what this season and then I started hitting 300 yard bombs with their fairway wood," said Waldorf. "I'm excited to explore the full line of Exotics equipment since the first two clubs I have tried are in my bag." I am a big fan of how this is a U.S. owned and operated company that has dedicated itself to the PGA Tour Champions. They are out here every week making sure we are taken care of with ultra-high-performance clubs and that is very much appreciated. I'll be proud to wear their hat and carry their bag this year to help spread the word on Tour Edge Exotics."

Waldorf served as an Exotics CBX staff player in 2018. He played Tour Edge Exotics CBX fairway woods and hybrids all year en route to season that saw him earn $815,559.

Waldorf finished 24th in the final Charles Schwab Cup points and money standings in 2018. He earned four Top 10 finishes on the PGA Tour Champions, but finished in the Top 25 in 15 of the 27 events he played in 2018.

He earned a Top 5 finish at the Regions Tradition and 6th at the SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, both major events. He also earned a 4th place finish at the PURE Insurance Championship. He ended his season with a Top 10 finish in the Playoffs at the Invesco QQQ Championship.

This year, Waldorf will be wearing Tour Edge Exotics logoed headwear and sporting a Tour Edge Exotics logo on his chest and carrying a Tour Edge Exotics CBX 119 bag for the first time and will also expand his club usage to other categories with Tour Edge Exotics clubs.

"Duffy is a grinder and a model of consistency out on the PGA Tour Champions," said Tour Edge President David Glod. "This is a big name in golf and a big deal for Tour Edge to name as our 4th logo staff player. He was in play with us all year last year and absolutely loves the clubs. I'm excited to work with him on the Exotics CBX 119 down in Boca Raton as these clubs were designed for a golfer just like Duffy in mind. I see a perfect marriage brewing."

Waldorf will make his season debut February 8th at the Oasis Championship in Boca Raton, Fl.

Waldorf will also take part in Tour Edge's sponsorship of the PGA Tour Champions Learning Center show on the Golf Channel. The PGA Tour Learning Center is a popular Golf Channel television show that features professional tips and instruction featuring the legends of golf from the PGA Tour Champions.

PGA Tour Champions Learning Center, Presented by Tour Edge, is scheduled to air 43 episodes in 2019, beginning January 22nd, with Tour Edge prominently featured within each episode. The series also will incorporate Tour Edge Exotics Staff Professionals like Waldorf, Tom Lehman, Scott McCarron and Tim Petrovic among others providing tips geared toward the amateur golfer.

"We set up on the range at every event in 2018 and over 50 different professionals started playing Exotics," said Glod. "The players have been very thankful for the service we are providing them and it has led to some great relationships and great feedback for me on club design."

In all, over 50 players have put over 300 Exotics clubs into play since Exotics was launched to the tour in the last year. Eight out of the Top 25 players (32%) in the Charles Schwab Cup final standings and 16 out of the Top 50 players put Exotics into play in 2018.

On top of the six victories and 10 runner-up finishes procured by players using Exotics on the 2018 PGA Tour Champions, players using Tour Edge clubs also earned 34 Top 5 finishes and 60 Top 10 finishes in the 27 events played on the PGA Tour Champions in 2018.

The Tour Edge Exotics CBX hybrid ranked as the #1 most played hybrid model at the 2018 Senior PGA Championship and the Charles Schwab Cup Championship with their Exotics CBX hybrid accounting for 16% of the hybrids in play, according to the Darrell Survey.
